

Declaration of liability for group leaders

DORNBIRN

Sport climbing is a risk-entailing type of sport. I am aware that I use the climbing facility of the K1 climbing gym Dornbirn at my own risk, and acknowledge that neither the owner nor the supervisory staff of this climbing facility are liable for injuries and/or damages that occur due to my activity in this facility.

Training in the field of climbing

With my signature I confirm that

- due to my up-to-date training in the field of climbing I am legally allowed and qualified to guide a group in the premises of the K1 Kletterhalle Betriebs GmbH. The guidance takes place independently and on my own responsibility.
- as a group leader I take full responsibility for the actions of my course participants.
- I have to care for the passing on and observance of the gym regulations of the K1 Kletterhalle Betriebs GmbH and the safety regulations within my group.
- rental equipment is only lent to me. I bear liability for all legal consequences by passing on the material to course participants and take care of an orderly return of the borrowed material.
- all my course participants will also leave the climbing areas as a single closed group.
- I am not allowed to turn climbing holds and any adhesive strips or tags have to be removed.
- if the group has 6 or more participants I have to register them beforehand by using the reservation system Venuzle and that only registered groups receive group rates.
